Marathi Bhasha Din Celebration 2020-2021

Introduction:

Department of computer science celebrated 27th February 2021, Saturday as a Marathi Bhasha Diwas, on the occasion of the birth anniversary of noted Marathi litterateur V.V Shirwadkar alias 'Kusumagraj.

Kusumagraj, born on 27 February 1912, was an eminent Marathi poet, playwright, novelist, short story writer and humanist. In his writings, he wrote about freedom, justice and emancipation of the deprived.

The government started celebrating the birth anniversary of Kusumagraj as Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din after the Jnanpeeth awardees demise in 1999.

Objective of the Event

1. Language is the root map of our culture and we have to make an efforts to preserve our root languages, thus to eradicate the language barrier this day is celebrated.
2. To take pride in the language of the state and not be weary of marking the day.
3. A circular uploaded on the university's website has made it mandatory to celebrate the day, a compliance report for which will also be expected post the events.
4. The University Grants Commission (UGC) has directed all universities and colleges to celebrate February 27 as 'Matrubhasha Divas'.

Proceedings of the Event:

Miss. Shrutika Mali Presented Importance of the day through PPT. A group of Ten students created video showing objectives and importance of a Matrubhasha Divas'. Paper documents of PPT and video of this function is attached.

Learning Outcome for Faculty/Students:

1. The recent celebrations in Maharashtra have seen significant due to active government involvement.
2. Such programme underlines the strength of languages and its impact on the life of the individual
3. It not only makes students aware of the history of the language, but also enlightens them about the literary works available in the language.
4. It proved the fact that Science and Literature go hand in hand.
5. It encourages students to learn the state language as well read and understand literary works and communicate in it.
