Short Description of Activity:

Department of English, Hindi and Marathi organized One Day Workshop entitled 'Ghazal: A Form of Poetry' on Saturday 08/02/2025 especially for B.A. I, II- and III-year students. The workshop resumed with watering the plant by the chief guest of the function. In the preface, Dr S. P. Patil introduced the purpose of the workshop especially organized for Arts students. He spoke on the origin and development of 'ghazal' poetry in India with special reference to some popular lyricists. Dr. A.L. Powar introduced the chief guest and popular ghazal writer, Mr. Siraj Shikalgar. Students from Arts were given an opportunity to present the popular ghazals. The faculty such as Prof. Dr.N. I. Sheikh, Prof. Dr. V.N. Sahadev, Dr. P.P. Yadav. Dr. P.A. Khabade presented their ghazals with critical commentaries. In the first session, in his key note address, Mr. Siraj Shikalgar, the famous ghazal writer and eminent poet expressed his views on the structure of the ghazal. He also discussed and presented various types of ghazals based on social, political, economic, religious issues. He strongly recommended the need of grammatically accurate construction of lines in the ghazals. He entertained the audience with the presentations of ghazals. In his presidential speech, Dr. Ashok Chavan rightly insisted on the social context of poetry.

The second session was devoted for the interactive dialogue between the poet and the audience. The students and faculty actively participated in this activity.

The workshop was concluded by the vote of thanks proposed by Prof. Dr. P.B. Gaikwad.
