

❖ EARN AND LEARN SCHEME:

This scheme being implemented by the college enables the society and economically disadvantaged students to earn small amount of money by working in various college departments. They are usually absorbed in such areas of activity of the college as library & administrative office, these scheme help students to get first –hand experience of varied nature and to develop their personality and communication skills.