No. of participants: 25

Name of the organizer: The Kalyani Forum, Beti Bachao Committee, and Cultural Committee, Shri. Vijaysinha Yadav College, Peth Vadgaon

Objectives:

1. To provide a platform for students to express their artistic skills and creativity.
2. To encourage collaboration and teamwork among participants.
3. To give students an opportunity to showcase their talents and skills.

Detailed report:

The Kalyani Forum and Beti Bachao Committee, in collaboration with the Cultural Committee, organized a vibrant and engaging Mehendi and Rangoli competition at the Seminar Hall. The event aimed to showcase the creative talents of B.A., B. Com. and B. Sc. students.

The Mehendi competition commenced at 10:00 am, featuring 12 talented contestants who skilfully applied intricate designs on a model's hands within a two-hour timeframe. The judges evaluated the designs based on criteria such as intricacy, neatness, social message incorporation, and overall visual effect.

The Rangoli competition began at 2:00 pm, with 13 participants creating stunning freehand designs based on an on-site theme. The contestants brought their own materials and had two and a half hour to complete their masterpieces. The judges assessed the artworks based on neatness, colour combination, social message incorporation, and overall effect. Both competitions not only showcased the students' artistic talents but also fostered cultural engagement and appreciation.

Outcomes:

- Showcased student creativity and artistic talent.
- Promoted traditional Indian cultural values.
- Encouraged social awareness through art.
- Enhanced skills like design, time management, and presentation.
