Report on the Fourth Day of NSS Special Residential Camp at Tasgaon Village: Flag hosting and street play

Date: 26th January 2024

Venue: Tasgaon Village, Tahasil Hatkanangale

The NSS Unit of Shri Vijaysinha Yadav College, Pethvadgaon, under the guidance of the NSS Unit of Shivaji University, Kolhapur, organized a special residential camp at Tasgaon Village from 22nd to 28th January 2024. The camp focused on community service, social awareness, and student engagement in rural development.

The fourth day of the camp, coinciding with Republic Day on 26th January 2024, was marked by a series of significant and inspiring activities, aimed at fostering a sense of civic responsibility and societal awareness among students and the local community.

Activities of the Day

Flag Hosting at the Grampanchayat Office

The day commenced with the students participating in the flag-hosting ceremony at the Grampanchayat office. This event celebrated the spirit of Republic Day, fostering patriotism and a sense of unity among the students and villagers.

Street Play on Literacy Awareness

To promote the importance of literacy, the NSS volunteers presented a street play. The performance emphasized the transformative power of education and the need for literacy as a foundation for societal progress. The play was well-received by the villagers, creating awareness and encouraging them to prioritize education in their lives.

Participation and Attendance

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from 105 NSS volunteers who actively engaged in all the planned activities. Their dedication and commitment to the tasks reflected the true spirit of the National Service Scheme.

Guidance and Faculty Support

The day's activities were organized and supervised under the guidance of NSS Programme Officers Dr. A. V. Jadhav and Mr. D. B. Patil. The faculty members who provided their valuable support and motivation included:

- Dr. S. S. Patil
- Dr. C. B. Mane
- Mr. D. G. Jagtap
- Dr. P. R. Nisargandh

Their presence inspired and encouraged the students, ensuring the success of the day's initiatives.

Conclusion

The fourth day of the NSS camp at Tasgaon Village was a remarkable success, combining the celebration of Republic Day with meaningful community engagement. The students' efforts in promoting literacy and civic awareness were commendable and left a lasting impression on the local community.

The NSS Unit of Shri Vijaysinha Yadav College expresses gratitude to all participants, faculty members, and the Grampanchayat office for their support and contribution to making the day impactful and memorable.

Date: 27th January 2024

Venue: Tasgaon Village, Tahasil Hatkanangale

The NSS Unit of Shri Vijaysinha Yadav College, Pethvadgaon, under the guidance of the NSS Unit of Shivaji University, Kolhapur, continued its week-long special residential camp at Tasgaon Village with a focus on social service and community welfare. The fifth day of the camp, 27th January 2024, was dedicated to cleaning the Smashan Bhumi (cemetery) of Tasgaon Village.

Activities of the Day

Cleaning the Smashan Bhumi

The students actively participated in cleaning the Smashan Bhumi of the village, demonstrating the spirit of community service and teamwork. The activity aimed at improving the hygiene and cleanliness of the area while encouraging the local community to maintain and care for public spaces.

The cleaning drive involved the removal of waste materials, weeds, and debris from the Smashan Bhumi. The students worked diligently under the guidance of their programme officers and faculty members, ensuring the area was thoroughly cleaned and organized.

Participation and Attendance

A total of 105 NSS volunteers participated in this activity with great enthusiasm and dedication. Their collective efforts not only enhanced the cleanliness of the area but also raised awareness about the importance of maintaining such community spaces.

Guidance and Faculty Support

The day's activities were conducted under the supervision and guidance of NSS Programme Officers Dr. A. V. Jadhav and Mr. D. B. Patil. Faculty members who supported and motivated the students throughout the day included:

- Dr. S. J. Pawar
- Dr. M. A. Patil
- Mr. P. A. Khabade

- Dr. R. H. Karande

Their presence and encouragement inspired the students to complete the task with a sense of responsibility and commitment.

Impact and Outcome

The cleaning activity significantly improved the hygiene and appearance of the Smashan Bhumi, earning appreciation from the local community. This initiative not only highlighted the importance of cleanliness but also encouraged villagers to take an active role in maintaining public spaces.

Conclusion

The fifth day of the NSS camp at Tasgaon Village was a resounding success, showcasing the spirit of service and teamwork among the students. The activity not only benefited the community but also instilled a sense of civic responsibility and environmental awareness among the participants.

The NSS Unit of Shri Vijaysinha Yadav College extends gratitude to all the students, faculty members, and the local community for their cooperation and support in making the day productive and impactful.

Report on the Sixth Day of NSS Special Residential Camp at Tasgaon Village: Watering Plants at Oxygen Park

Date: 28th January 2024

Venue: Oxygen Park near Mahalaxmi Talav, Vadgaon

The NSS Unit of Shri Vijaysinha Yadav College, Pethvadgaon, under the guidance of the NSS Unit of Shivaji University, Kolhapur, continued its week-long special residential camp with activities focused on environmental conservation and community service.

The sixth day of the camp, 28th January 2024, was dedicated to an environmental initiative at Oxygen Park near Mahalaxmi Talav, Vadgaon.

Activities of the Day

Watering Plants at Oxygen Park

The students actively participated in watering plants at the Oxygen Park, demonstrating their commitment to environmental preservation and sustainability. The activity aimed to nurture the green cover in the park and raise awareness about the importance of protecting and maintaining green spaces.

Equipped with necessary tools, the NSS volunteers efficiently watered the plants, ensuring the healthy growth of the saplings planted earlier. This initiative not only contributed to the ecological well-being of the area but also reinforced the students' understanding of the significance of green spaces in combating climate change and improving air quality.

Participation and Attendance

A total of 105 NSS volunteers took part in this activity with enthusiasm and dedication. Their efforts reflected the core values of the NSS, emphasizing teamwork and environmental stewardship.

Guidance and Faculty Support

The activity was conducted under the supervision of NSS Programme Officers Dr. A. V. Jadhav and Mr. D. B. Patil. The following faculty members were present and provided encouragement and support:

- Dr. S. J. Pawar
- Dr. M. A. Patil
- Mr. P. A. Khabade
- Dr. R. H. Karande

Their presence inspired the students to actively engage in the activity and complete the task with diligence.

Impact and Outcome

The watering initiative significantly contributed to the upkeep of the Oxygen Park, promoting the health of the plants and enhancing the park's greenery. This activity also highlighted the students' role in supporting environmental conservation efforts and inspired the local community to take similar steps for maintaining green spaces in the area.

Conclusion

The sixth day of the NSS camp at Tasgaon Village was a successful demonstration of environmental responsibility and community engagement. The activity not only benefited the ecosystem but also reinforced the importance of sustainability among the participants.

The NSS Unit of Shri Vijaysinha Yadav College expresses heartfelt gratitude to all the students, faculty members, and local authorities for their cooperation and contribution to making the day impactful and meaningful.
