Short Description of Conducted Activity:

The NSS Unit of Shri Vijaysinha Yadav College, under the guidance of Shivaji University, Kolhapur, held an Anti-Addiction Oath ceremony ("Shapath Grahan: Vyasnmukti") on 15th August, 2026 on the occasion of Independence Day at College Campus. It was aimed at tackling the growing issue of substance abuse. This event inspired participants to pledge towards an addiction-free lifestyle while actively raising awareness about its dangers across the community.

PO's and PSO's covered:

Programme Objectives

- 1) Promote Awareness Against Substance Abuse: To educate NSS volunteers and college students on the severe physical, psychological, and social hazards associated with addiction.
- 2) Instill Civic and Personal Responsibility: To encourage participants to commit to an addiction-free lifestyle by taking a formal pledge and acting as proactive advocates for substance-free communities.

Programme Specific Outcomes

- 1) Increased Commitment to Healthy Living: Over 100 participants officially pledged to remain free from substance abuse, resulting in enhanced personal health awareness across the student body.
- 2) Community Leadership & Advocacy: Participants were empowered to serve as peer ambassadors, actively spreading anti-addiction awareness and influencing their social circles toward positive behavioural change.
